

Standard Life Express™ Implementation package

Your implementation checklist

1. Call your Manager, Business Development (MBD) to obtain a new Standard Life Group Savings and Retirement client number.
2. Log into the VIP Room at www.standardlife.ca, under Secure online access, to complete the Standard Life Express™ implementation package.
3. With the client, verify the Summary of main provisions generated online - this is a very important step as it is part of the contractual documentation.
4. Submit the completed Standard Life Express implementation package online.
5. Obtain the following signed documents and send them by email at standardlife.express@standardlife.ca or by fax at 1-866-499-4480.

Signed by the client

- ✓ ADP appointment confirmation, if applicable
- ✓ Application - RSP, if applicable
- ✓ Application - TFSA, if applicable
- ✓ Terms of agreement – DPSP
- ✓ Client identification supplementary information – DPSP
- ✓ Resolution of the Board of Directors – DPSP (typically appended to the next formal Board Meeting minutes)
- ✓ Trust agreement – DPSP
- ✓ T2214 form - DPSP (must only be completed in part)

Signed by the agent of record

- ✓ Compensation agreement
- ✓ New broker contracting documents (only required for new advisors to Standard Life). Contact your MBD to obtain a copy of these documents. Original documents must be submitted.

Note: the client should retain all originals as Standard Life and/or the Canada Revenue Agency may request them at any time. Each affiliated company/subsidiary must have its own plan and complete its own package.

Proceed with the member enrolment process.

1. Obtain member enrolment packages - choose one of the following two approaches
 - ✓ Print the employee material and Plan for life™ brochure by logging into the VIP Room at www.standardlife.ca. The Plan for Life brochure can also be ordered from your Manager, Business Development (MBD).
 - You must ensure the member package contains the Plan for life™ brochure, the Rates of Return & Investment Management Fees and the enrolment forms, corresponding to the selected investment menu and the Summary of main provisions.
 - ✓ Order pre-assembled enrolment packages and complete section 9 in part A of this implementation package.
2. Hold a member enrolment session and hand out the enrolment packages: a template of the presentation is available for you online at <https://viproom.standardlife.ca/pin/Login.jsp>.

Return enrolment forms.

- ✓ Paper enrolment – return by mail to Group Savings and Retirement, P.O. Box 11464, Succ. Centre-ville, Montreal, QC, H3C 5M3
 - Member enrolment form signed by the client and the member - mail original
 - Spousal enrolment form (if applicable) signed by the client, the member and the spouse - mail original
- ✓ Online enrolment – return to address indicated online
 - Member Beneficiary designation form signed by the member - mail original
 - Spouse Beneficiary designation form signed by the spouse - mail original

Standard Life will receive all required documentation and will

- ✓ Contact you for any missing information regarding the enclosed implementation material;
- ✓ Contact the employer to review the plan administration;
- ✓ Send the material prepared by Standard Life as per the instructions noted in sections 9 and 12.

Effective date (YYYY/MM/DD) ⁽⁹⁾

Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA)

Plan name	The Standard Life Tax-Free Savings Account
Effective date (YYYY/MM/DD) ⁽⁹⁾

- (8) As per the Canada Revenue Agency, the term "Registered" may not be part of the plan name.
- (9) The date may not be before the effective date of the plan with Standard Life.
- (10) "Connected person" is defined in subsection 8500(3) of the income tax regulations and includes a person who meets one or more of the following conditions. The person: owns, directly or indirectly, at least 10% of the issued shares of any class of the capital stock of the employer, or of any other corporation that is related to the employer; does not deal at arm's length with the employer; or is a specified shareholder of the employer under paragraph (d) of the definition of "specified shareholder" in subsection 248(1) of the Income Tax Act(Canada).
In accordance with the Income Tax Act(Canada), "Connected persons" are not entitled to join a Deferred Profit Sharing Plan.
If some employees are considered "Connected persons" and you wish to make them eligible to a retirement savings plan (RSP), you must complete the Retirement Savings Plan provision page in section 15 with the employment class defined as "Connected persons". Since they cannot join the Deferred Profit Sharing plan, the employer may choose, as an alternative, to contribute in the Retirement Savings Plan.

Application Employer-sponsored Retirement Savings Plan

We, _____ (the applicant), acting as agent for and on behalf of the employees
(Full official legal name of employer participating in the plan) to be included in the Employer-sponsored Retirement Savings plan (the "plan") hereby make application to The Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada (Standard Life Canada) and Standard Life Assurance Limited (Standard Life) for a policy to be issued to us to take effect from the date stated in the policy. The policy will be jointly issued by the Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada and by Standard Life Assurance Limited, a Scottish company, in the course of its insurance business in Canada.

We agree:

1. to supply Standard Life Canada with all information and documents deemed necessary to fulfil its obligations under the policy. This includes but is not limited to, our approval (email or other written approval) of the pricing terms associated to the policy, the provisions of the plan and the confirmation of the investment funds selected for the plan. Such approval can be given by our representative who has responsibility for the administration of the plan, or by the agent of record appointed by us from time to time. Standard Life Canada shall be entitled to act upon the instructions that we or our authorized representative have provided without further investigation or validation by Standard Life Canada;
2. that full access to the Standard Life VIP Room be provided to the designated representative we have named for that purpose and we authorise such representative to assign access to other parties, subject to the applicable privacy laws and regulations and solely for the purpose of the plan;
3. (a) _____ has been appointed as our agent of record for the plan to arrange for and service the policy on an ongoing basis;
(b) that full access to the Standard Life VIP Room be provided to our agent of record, designated representative with web access, and we authorize such representative to assign access to other parties within their firm, subject to the applicable privacy laws and regulations and solely for the purpose of the plan;
4. that the fees may include a compensation from Standard Life Canada to the agent of record following the acquisition of the group policy;
5. that we are under no obligation to transact any other business with Standard Life Canada or Standard Life or any other person or company as a condition of Standard Life Canada and Standard Life issuing the policy to us;
6. to comply with federal and/or provincial privacy legislation regarding the privacy of personal information collected, used, and disclosed in relation to the plan and to obtain the written consent of each member of the plan to the exchange of such information and to provide such written consent to Standard Life Canada in the manner or form deemed appropriate by Standard Life Canada for the ongoing administration of the plan;
7. to provide each member of the plan with a written explanation of the terms and conditions of the plan, any applicable plan amendments and an explanation of his or her rights and duties with respect to the benefits available to him or her under the terms of the plan;
8. that the policy will be established on the basis of the specimen policy forming part of Standard Life Canada Specimen plan No. RSP267-046 (Employer-Sponsored RSP) that is pre-approved by Canada Revenue Agency and we acknowledge and accept that any modification to the specimen plan offered under this policy be binding on the policyholder and its members;
9. that this application, together with the Quotation established in connection with the policy, will form the basis of the contract between the applicant and The Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada and Standard Life Assurance Limited.

The policy is an annuity contract that is based on the following terms:

This policy includes benefits that are not guaranteed and which fluctuate with the market value of the assets of the funds supporting them.

Employees: Such employees as are included under the plan. The benefits of employees are derived from income earned in Canada.

Annuity: The amounts and types of annuity are determined according to the terms of the policy, unless provided otherwise in the plan.

Premiums: The applicant will remit all premiums to Standard Life Canada for investment.

Standard Life Guaranteed funds are only made available to those members whose investments in Standard Life Canada Guaranteed funds have reached the Assuris maximum protection limit for registered group policies and who wish to secure additional Assuris coverage by investing in Standard Life Guaranteed funds. Assuris is a not for profit corporation, funded by the life insurance industry, that protects Canadian policyholders against loss of benefits due to the financial failure of a member company. Details about the extent of Assuris' protection are available at www.assuris.ca or in its brochure, which can be obtained from your financial advisor, life insurance company or Assuris from info@assuris.ca.

Terms of agreement
Deferred Profit Sharing Plan

We, _____ (the applicant), hereby agree to the following

(Full official legal name of employer participating in the plan)

terms and conditions in relation to the group policy to be issued to Standard Life Trust Company (Standard Life Trust), as trustee of the Deferred Profit Sharing Plan for _____, by The Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada (Standard Life Canada) and by Standard Life Assurance Limited (Standard Life Limited), a Scottish company, in the course of its insurance business in Canada, with effect from the date stated in the policy.

Terms and Conditions

We agree:

1. to duly execute a Trust agreement with Standard Life Trust in conjunction with the plan;
2. to supply Standard Life Canada with all information and documents deemed necessary to fulfill its obligations under the policy and the obligations of Standard Life Trust under the terms of the Trust agreement. This includes but is not limited to, our approval (e-mail or other written approval) of the pricing terms associated to the policy, the provisions of the plan and the confirmation of the investment funds selected for the plan. Such approval can be given by our representative who has responsibility for the administration of the plan, or by the agent of record appointed by us from time to time. Standard Life Canada shall be entitled to act upon the instructions provided without further investigation or validation by Standard Life Canada;
3. that full access to the Standard Life VIP Room be provided to the designated representative we have named for that purpose and we authorise such representative to assign access to other parties, subject to the applicable privacy laws and regulations and solely for the purpose of the plan;
4. (a) _____ has been appointed as our agent of record for the plan to arrange for and service the policy on an ongoing basis;
(b) that full access to the Standard Life VIP Room be provided to our agent of record, designated representative with web access, and we authorize such representative to assign access to other parties within their firm, subject to the applicable privacy laws and regulations and solely for the purpose of the plan;
5. that the fees may include a compensation from Standard Life Canada to the Agent of Record following the acquisition of the group policy;
6. that we are under no obligation to transact any other business with Standard Life Trust, Standard Life Canada or Standard Life Limited or any other person or company as a condition of the issuance of this policy;
7. to comply with federal and/or provincial privacy legislation regarding the privacy of personal information collected, used, and disclosed in relation to the plan and to obtain the written consent of each member of the plan to the exchange of such information and to provide such written consent to Standard Life Canada in the manner or form deemed appropriate by Standard Life Canada for the ongoing administration of the plan;
8. to provide each member of the plan with a written explanation of the terms and conditions of the plan, any applicable plan amendments and an explanation of his or her rights and duties with respect to the benefits available to him or her under the terms of the plan.

If this Terms of agreement is signed in Quebec:

The undersigned acknowledges having requested that this application and its policy be provided in the English language;

THIS TRUST AGREEMENT made this _____

BETWEEN:

(hereinafter referred to as the "Company")

- AND -

STANDARD LIFE TRUST COMPANY a trust company incorporated under the Trust and Loan Companies Act
(Canada)

(hereinafter referred to as the "Trustee")

WHEREAS the Company has adopted a deferred profit sharing plan for its employees known as the _____ deferred profit sharing plan (hereinafter referred to as the "plan") and which plan as it may be amended from time to time is collectively made a part hereof; and

WHEREAS under the plan funds will be contributed to the Trustee, which funds as and when received by the Trustee will constitute a trust fund for the benefit of the members of the plan or their beneficiaries or estates; and

WHEREAS the Company desires the Trustee to administer such trust fund and the Trustee is willing to administer the same pursuant to the terms of this agreement.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants herein contained the Company and the Trustee do hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- (1) The Trustee shall receive any contributions paid to it pursuant to the terms of the plan. The Contributions so received together with the income therefrom (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust fund") shall be held, invested, managed and administered pursuant to the terms hereof. The Trustees shall not be responsible for the collection of any funds required by the plan to be paid to the Trustee.
- (2) The Trustee shall from time to time make payment out of the Trust fund of all amounts which under the terms of the plan are to be paid for the benefit of the members of the plan and their beneficiaries and estates, and upon such payment being made, the amount thereof shall no longer constitute a part of the Trust fund.
- (3) No part of the Trust fund shall be used for, or diverted to purposes other than those provided in the plan, other than such part as is required to pay taxes and administration costs and expenses. In the event that the plan is terminated, after all claims and liabilities of the Trust fund under the terms of the plan have been satisfied, the assets of the Trust fund will, within ninety days of termination be applied for the benefit of the participants and beneficiaries in accordance with the value of the respective accounts as found by a special valuation of the Trust fund as at the date the plan is terminated.
- (4) The Trustee shall have in addition to any other powers and authority to which trustees may be entitled at law, the following powers and authority in the administration of the Trust fund:
 - (i) To purchase or sell any security recognized as a "qualified investment" under the Income Tax Act (Canada), or the regulations thereunder, and to act generally as owner and exercise all rights associated with ownership thereof.
 - (ii) To purchase life insurance or annuity policies or units in a segregated fund of an insurance company authorized to carry on business in Canada.
 - (iii) To borrow money on a short-term basis to facilitate the payment of benefits under the plan without forcing a distress sale of long term investments.
 - (iv) To hold cash or bank deposits.
 - (v) To employ agents, lawyers or accountants and to pay them out of the Trust fund.
- (5) The powers given in clause (4) above shall be limited to the extent that the Trustee shall not be permitted to invest in notes, bonds, debentures or similar obligations of the Company or of any other corporation with which it does not deal at arm's length nor in the shares of any corporation at least 50% of the property of which consists of such property.
- (6) The Trustee shall cause full and accurate records of the administration of the Trust fund to be kept and shall render to the Company not less frequently than annually a report or accounting in reasonable detail of the transactions and assets and liabilities of the Trust fund.

- (7) The Trustee shall be entitled to receive such reasonable fees and administration charges as may be established from time to time and the reimbursement of all disbursements reasonable incurred by it in the performance of its duties hereunder in accordance with the fee schedule provided to the Company, as it may from time to time be amended by agreement between the Trustee and the Company.
- (8) In the absence of gross negligence or wilful misconduct, the Trustee shall incur no liability for any act or omission.
- (9) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty days' written notice and the Company may remove the Trustee by giving it thirty days' written notice. In the event of such resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Company shall appoint a successor Trustee by an instrument in writing and such successor trustee shall have the same powers and duties as the Trustee.
- (10) The Trustee shall honour its obligations under the Income Tax Act with respect to withholding of taxes.
- (11) The Company and the Trustee shall have the right at any time, by mutual consent to amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of this agreement with the concurrence of the authorities administering the relevant income tax legislation. Any such amendment shall be in writing.
- (12) The Trustee hereby accepts this trust and agrees to administer the Trust fund in accordance with the terms and conditions of this agreement.
- (13) This agreement shall be construed and enforced according to the laws of the Province in which the Company has its head office and all provisions hereof shall be administered according to the laws of the said province.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed these presents the date and year first above written.

Compensation agreement - Page 1 of 2

1 Definitions
Standard Life Canada	The Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada
Agent	The compensation payable under the terms of this agreement will be distributed to: Note: must be the same as indicated in the implementation package under section 5 of Part A (mandatory) - Basic information.
General Agent (if any)	I acknowledge having placed this business through my affiliation with the following General Agent: _____
Policyholder	For purposes of this Agreement, Policyholder also refers to the sponsor of a trustee plan in respect of which a policy is issued to the trustees. Note: must be the same as indicated in the implementation package under section 2 of Part A (mandatory) - Basic information.
Group Policy	Each of the group policies issued by Standard Life Canada to the Policyholder under the Standard Life Express product. A separate Group Policy is issued for each group savings or retirement plan. Immediate or deferred annuity certificates, the Group RIF/LIF and the SLX Vision or Advantage program are not considered Group Policy for the purpose of this agreement.
Compensation Year	The Effective Date marks the beginning of a Compensation Year. Subsequent anniversaries of this date mark the start of each new Compensation Year while the Group Policy is in force. Note: In the event that the commission terms under section 2 (Commissions), of this agreement represent a change in the terms originally established in respect of the Group Policy or represent the terms applicable to the incorporation of an Agent under the said policy where the Agent did not previously exist, the Compensation Year shall be re-set and will begin on the date that change in commission terms or date of incorporation of the Agent is recorded in the records of Standard Life Canada.
Asset Transfers	Funds originating from policies or other sources outside Standard Life Canada, which are transferred to the Group Policy.
Effective Date	The Effective Date of this compensation agreement is the date established on the commencement date of the Group Policy, which coincides with the date on which the first premium is received by Standard Life Canada in respect of the Group Policy.
Regular Premiums	Premiums remitted to Standard Life Canada in accordance with the terms of a group savings or retirement plan for which a Group Policy has been issued, excluding Assets Transfers.
The Standard Life Assurance Company of Canada and the Agent hereby agree to and accept the following compensation terms in recognition of services provided by the Agent with respect to the Group Policy issued to the Policyholder.

2 Commissions
Standard Life Canada will pay commission to the Agent, for services provided to the Policyholder as the Agent of record and for any assistance given to Standard Life Canada which may be required in order to service the Group Policy, at the following rate:
(a)	Commission on assets under the Group Policy will be paid at the rate of 0.300% of Accumulated assets under a Group Policy per Compensation Year, payable monthly.
(b)	The commission payable on Regular Premiums and Asset Transfers to the Group Policy received during each Compensation Year is 1% of Regular Premiums and Asset Transfers received in respect of a Group Policy per year.

3 Commissions Advance
First year's commission on Regular Premiums is paid in advance to the Agent based on 80% of the "estimated annual cashflow" as defined in section 11 of Part A (mandatory) - Basic information for the 12 month period following the Effective Date. Upon expiry of the said period, the Company will perform a reconciliation of the total Regular Premiums actually received during the said period and the said "estimated annual cashflow". Any commission then determined to be due to the Agent will be paid or, alternatively, the Company will recover any overpayment of commission from the Agent or from commission due to the Agent in respect of Regular Premiums made in the second or subsequent year.

Compensation agreement - Page 2 of 2

4 Commission recovery schedule

If this Group Policy is terminated within 48 months of the Effective Date, Standard Life Canada will recover from the Agent commissions paid to the Agent for Regular Premiums and Asset Transfers according to the following commission recovery schedule:

Number of months from the Effective Date	% of commission recoverable
0 to 12 months inclusively	100%
13 to 24 months inclusively	75%
25 to 36 months inclusively	50%
37 to 48 months inclusively	25%
49 months or more	Nil

No commission recovery will apply to asset commission nor to the portion of commission on Regular Premiums that is offset by a cashflow charge, if applicable.

5 Notes

- Subject to the terms of the following paragraphs, the Agent shall be entitled to compensation for any premium received under the Group Policy on and after the date on which the appointment of the Agent by the Policyholder is recorded on the records of Standard Life Canada.
- Commission payments will continue to be paid to the Agent provided the Agent continues to be recognized as Agent of record under the Group Policy and continues to hold a valid Provincial Life Insurance Agent's licence.
- Where a master broker agreement has been executed between Standard Life Canada and the Agent respecting group insurance and/or retirement products, this compensation agreement will be considered to be an Appendix to the master broker agreement and will be subject to the terms and conditions set out in the said agreement.

6 Agreement

In consideration of the fact that, in providing services to the Policyholder, the Agent will receive personal information with respect to the members of the plan ("personal information") from the Policyholder or from Standard Life Canada, the Agent agrees that it will use, retain and disclose such personal information received from the Policyholder or Standard Life Canada only in accordance with applicable privacy law, whether federal or provincial (the "applicable law"), and, in particular, that it will use, retain and disclose such personal information only for the purpose of the Group Policy and plan. The Agent further agrees that it will treat all personal information it receives in the strictest confidence and will not disclose such personal information to anyone, other than its directors, officers and employees on a "need-to-know" basis for the purpose of the plan except in accordance with applicable law.

I acknowledge having received the Implementation Package Checklist and that I am solely responsible to provide eligible employees of the above Policyholder with, or ensure that they are provided with, the required documents and information as listed under this Checklist.

If mandated with the responsibility to provide Standard Life Canada with confirmation of the Policyholder's approval of the pricing terms and plan provisions associated to the Group Policy or plan and/or the investment funds selected for the Group Policy or plan, the Agent, as the Policyholder's authorized representative, agrees that it will transmit such confirmation to Standard Life Canada via e-mail or other written communication and agrees that Standard Life Canada shall be entitled to act upon our instructions without further investigation or validation by Standard Life Canada.

As the Agent of record, I agree to the terms of this compensation agreement.
